Queen of Diamonds

An icon in its own right, Tiffany & Co. unveils the Tiffany Noble Necklace as part of a celebration to mark the brand's 175th anniversary. This marvelous masterpiece features alternating round and marquise diamonds set in a sumptuous platinum chain. But the real star of this piece is the internally flawless, 18.44-carat centre diamond — a hallmark that makes anyone feel like royalty. Retail at $7,150,000.
