Get out and about in Toronto - become the face of Cougar Boots, check out shu uemura now at Sephora and win a $100 gift card and personal shopper at Toronto Eaton Centre!

Cougar Boots is looking for the new face of their advertising campaign and they setting up around town looking for it! All this week, they will be parked at different locations across Toronto and all you have to do is go visit them, try on a pair of boots and have your pic taken if front of their winter backdrop! Then starting next week, get all your friends to come vote for your pic on the Cougar Facebook page - most votes wins!

Not only will you win a professional photo shoot with hair and makeup as well as a pair of boots - you're pretty mug will be gracing a giant billboard at the corner of Queen and Spadina! And while it sounds like the most horrifying prize in the world to me (the billboard, not the boots), I bet some of you will like it - so check out the Facebook page to find out where the truck will be next so you can go enter!

www.facebook.com/CougarBoots - and if you do enter, make sure you let us know so we can vote for you!

I visited the truck last week and while I declined the opportunity to be famous, I did try on a pair of boots these very cute Cougar Wedge Pillow Boots! They come in black and brown and are $295.
