Zara Canada Online Shop Opens March 6!

Zara is one of my favourite stores and they finally opened a Canadian online shop! The shop officially goes live tomorrow (March 6) but you can actually shop it today! Click on the link below, and then click on the "bienvenue" box.

Shipping is free on orders over $50, or $9.95 for express shipping or you can opt to pick up your items in-store. This is great for those that don't have a Zara nearby or have trouble finding styles and sizes in-store (me).
