I've been a fan of ZARA for years and my closet is a reflection of that love affair!

Ever since ZARA started rolling out online shopping around the world, I've been patiently waiting for it's launch in Canada. The rumours of a Canadian e-commerce launch began earlier this year and they were confirmed mid-February. Pretty much every fashion blogger I know has been freaking out about this for weeks and I'm happy to report that MARCH 6th is finally HERE!!!

It's a beautiful thing my friends. I couldn't wait to check out the online store this morning to fill up a shopping cart and check out hassle-free. No more picked over racks, fitting room lineups or limited selection based on location – the online shop is expansive and let's face it, I know my size after all these years! Shipping is FREE on purchases over $50 and returns are a breeze if your purchase isn't quite right.

I was amazed by the SHOES! I've always loved the shoes at ZARA but I've never seen a very wide selection in-store so this pretty much blew me away! It's also nice to see all of the accessories and handbags in their own sections rather than scattered around the store – so much more selection than I expected!

Here's my first ZARA online shopping cart:

When I shop online, I usually throw everything that catches my eye into my shopping cart and then remove items until I've narrowed it down to my faves within my budget. As much I wanted to, I didn't end up getting everything seen above...you'll just have to wait and see!

I can't wait to receive my first order! Stay tuned for the Dainty Outfits these babies are guaranteed to appear in soon!

Thank you ZARA for finally bringing online shopping to Canada – happy shopping friends!
