ZARA Online Shopping Haul #DearCanada

A couple of days ago I received the BEST invite in the mail: It was an invitation AND a gift card to shop at the launch of ZARA's Canadian online shop. We've had ZARA stores in Canada since 1999, but there was no online shopping option...until now! The website officially launches on March 6th - and I got the opportunity to shop on the preview site.

I placed my order on Thursday when the preview site launched, and look what I found waiting for me this morning:

Want to see what I ordered?

A ZARA girl cardigan (size 14) and a TRF faux leather quilted jacket in Black (size S).

How I plan on wearing them:

I absolutely ADORE both pieces! The black quilted jacket is a classic and versatile piece, while the ZARA girl cardigan satiates my desire for a shrunken tweed-effect jacket.

I am SO excited about the launch of ZARA online shopping on March 6th! ZARA is one of my favorite stores (see my previous in-store purchases here).

- ZARA items are VERY popular. I often see ZARA shoes or bags that I love on other bloggers - I like the option of purchasing it online and having it sent to my local store so that I'm sure to get my item before it sells out.
- As a mom with 2 kids who doesn't always have the time to go to the mall, I appreciate the option of buying online instead of in-store - especially since they have a generous return policy (1 month from date of purchase).
- Home Delivery is super-efficient. As soon as I placed my order, I received an order notification, followed by a tracking number so that I could see where my package was at all times. My package originated in Montreal and was shipped to Toronto using Purolator - it came within 3 working days!
- You can pay using Credit Cards or Paypal. FREE SHIPPING for orders over $50!

Will you be ordering from the ZARA online shop?

DISCLAIMER: I received a gift card from ZARA - but I shop there all the time ANYWAY!
