So happy that Zara has launched online shopping in Canada! I was lucky enough to be one of the bloggers chosen to test out the site before its launch, so thank you, Zara, for the gift card! After much deliberation - Zara has so many beautiful things to choose from - I finally settled on this leather shopper, and I'm so glad I did. As for the experience: shopping on Zara.com is flawless. My package arrived in just three days, and came with beautiful presentation, compared to most online purchases, and I'm so happy with it.

Have you shopped online with Zara yet? What did you think?
