Zara: Big News for Canadians & What I Got

I am so excited to bring you this post! Today's the day! Zara Canada's online store has officially launched! It might seem like I'm high from caffeine but I'm not! Because I don't drink coffee! I'm just really, really stoked because Zara is one of my favorite stores! Canadian customers can now shop the hottest fashion trends from the comfort of their couch, which is exactly what I did this past weekend ;). Here's what I ended up getting:

combination linen biker jacket, special fabric t-shirt, classic striped t-shirt

Shipping was free because my order was over $50.00 and it arrived within two business days. Not bad at all. Happy Shopping, Canada!
