ZARA CANADA

Blouse: c/o Vince Camuto, Jeans: Gap, Shoes: c/o Zara Canada, Bag: Coach 'Lindsey', Necklace c/o Stella & Dot, Watch: Michael Kors, Ring: c/o Adorn, Sunglasses: c/o SmartBuyGlasses

Unless you've been avoiding social media altogether over the last couple weeks, I'm sure you've noticed there has been quite a buzz about Zara finally launching an e-commerce site in Canada! This is ridiculously exciting news, but especially exciting for those of us who live nowhere near an actual Zara store (the closest one to me is 8 hours away...) I was thrilled to be one of the first to get a sneak peek & early access to the new online shop, and picked up these killer shoes - real leather, pointed toes, a studded ankle strap and a very manageable 3" heel... I couldn't resist. They are SO comfortable, and I'm so in love with them.

I should also mention for anyone who hasn't taken the plunge and ordered yet, that it is dangerously easy. How often do you come across an amazing store that ships within Canada, no duty, no customs, free shipping over $50, accepts paypal and arrives at your door in 3 days? I'm thoroughly impressed.

I also snagged a fun shift dress that will be coming up in a post later this week! Have any of my fellow Canadians ordered anything yet? If so, I'd love to know what your first purchase was!

Happy Monday! & thanks to Kristin for the photos!
