

Grab of the Week: a black and white spring coat from Zara's new online shop

BY GRACIE CARROLL

Good news for Zara lovers and online shopping enthusiasts: Zara's Canadian online shopping site launched for the first time earlier this week. The site is sleek, easy to use and is filled with every available Zara garment (a big plus, since stock varies from store to store).

After browsing the site, we chose a simple spring coat that's perfectly in tune with the season's top trend of wearing black and white.

The best part is that you can take items that don't work out to your nearest Zara store for a return or an exchange.

Combined coat, $119. Available online at zara.com
