Must Have: Zara Printed Kaftan

Maybe it's all the news of SXSW, Osheaga, and Coachella fast approaching, but we're really feeling a bit bohemian at the moment and this Zara printed kaftan is just the cheap thrill we're looking for!

They recently launched online shopping in Canada (yay!) so we've been cruising the site often enough and stumbled upon this paisley printed kaftan, new for this week online.

It looks as good as silk, but is actually synthetic material (it costs a mere $99.00 Canadian), and is perfect for kicking around in the dusty dessert! Take a look at the full view of it below and snap one up over on their new Canadian site!
